Please Note: NoVo Scholar recipients must have low-income status. For purposes of this award, low income status is twice the poverty level using the 2020 federal poverty level guidelines set forth by the US Department of Health and Human Services. Please use the chart on the next page to determine if you qualify for low-income status.

Annual income is not the sole determinative factor. MLWS will consider additional factors such as other income sources, total net worth and whether an applicant is working to full capacity. The interview will play an integral part in the process.

All eligible candidates will be considered, however, funding is limited.
